Mr. Petrini -

I respond only to your email of August 17, 2025 below where you have requested an in person meeting to address many issues. The fact that you have sued me, Maddie Costelli Pettrey (the City's retained expert) and have threatened other suits against a wave of other attorneys including the prosecutor in Biloxi's Community Court creates an obstacle to such a meeting.

To overcome such an obstacle, I believe that such a meeting is only appropriate if it is conducted in the presence of a neutral official. As such, I suggest we jointly schedule a conference with United States Magistrate Judge Robert Myers if the Court can schedule such a conference relatively quickly. Alternatively, we could utilize United States Magistrate Judge Bradley Rath who is the assigned magistrate on one of the other suits you have filed. The current matter set this Friday in Community Court could be postponed pending our conference with one of the Magistrate Judges. Please advise if you are willing to jointly schedule such a conference.

Best Regards,

Hank Ros
